

Local MEP backs tough action on trafficking

South East MEP Catherine Bearder welcomes the UK Government's decision to support tough new measures to tackle human trafficking.

The Lib Dem Euro MP fought hard to persuade the UK Government to back new EU rules to increase the maximum prison sentence and give child trafficking victims better care.

"These new rules will help police to catch and convict trafficking gangs", said Catherine.

"Traffickers have no respect for borders, so governments must act together to stop this terrible crime".

Catherine is also leading the campaign to stamp out trafficking at London's 2012 Olympics. Show your support by returning the petition slip today or sign online at: www.campaigns.libdems.org.uk/stampout
